

Office of The President

January 6, 2021 marks the beginning of the global Ten Days of Prayer of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The theme for this year's prayer initiative is: “Seeking Revival.”

The Southeastern Conference Administration and Prayer Ministry invites all constituents of our Conference to join our brothers and sisters all around the world to seek revival through the power of the Holy Spirit during Ten Days of Prayer. We are encouraged, as we pray this year, "to claim God's promise to Zerubbabel as our own: 'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the Lord of hosts' (Zechariah 4:6). In other words, "What you [and I] are planning will neither succeed by the might of an army nor by human strength; rather, My Spirit will accomplish it! I, the Lord God Almighty, promise this" (translated by Helmut Haubeil from the German Hoffnung fuer Alle version).

The organizers of this year's Ten Days of Prayer wishes to remind us that "God wants to do incredible things in our lives and churches today. His plans go far beyond our own capabilities, and only with a constant prayer connection to Him can we carry out the task He has prepared. He bids us, 'Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know' (Jeremiah 33:3)".

For more information, resources, and to sign up, go to: <https://tendaysofprayer.org/>
Resources are available in many languages including English, French, Spanish, and Portuguese. You may also contact Mirthra Williams, SEC Prayer Ministry Director (mithra.williams@secsda.org) for more information or if you have any questions.

Please share this invitation with your family and friends, and let us all join our Adventists brothers and sisters around the world in "praying for revival and the promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Seek God's kingdom first, and watch Him open the windows of heaven!"

Blessings!

Michael K. Agyei Owusu